

Spaces still available for Camp A.R.M.Y Challenge Application deadline extended for two programs

HEIDELBERG, Germany — There are still a few spaces available in this summer's Camp A.R.M.Y. Challenge City Adventure for youth in grades 6-8 and the July 27-Aug. 1 Tall Ship Adventure. The Application deadline for these sessions has been extended until May 25 or until all slots have been filled, Installation Management Command-Europe Morale, Welfare and Recreation officials announced today.

The weeklong City Adventure program will be held July 16-21 in Heidelberg, Germany, and will include cultural awareness programs. The Camp A.R.M.Y. Challenge Tall Ship Sailing Program is a hands-on experience designed to challenge high-school teens in ninth through 12th grades. Both are part of four summer camp sessions being hosted this summer by IMCOM-Europe MWR, which are designed specifically to meet the needs of teens and middle-school youth with one or both active-duty parents deployed.

Middle school and high school students in grades 6 through 12 (during the 2006-2007 school year) whose active-duty Army, Air Force, Navy, or Marine parent deployed between June 1, 2006, and February 28, 2008, are eligible to apply. .
